NOTICE AND ORDER OF DEFAULT

On February 17, 2006 a NOTICE OF HEARING of this appeal was sent to the parties or their representative. The hearing was convened as scheduled, on Wednesday, March 22, 2006 in Knoxville, Tennessee. The appellant failed to attend or participate in the hearing personally or by authorized representative.

The Assessment Appeals Commission finds the aforementioned NOTICE OF HEARING to be legally sufficient in all respects. Further, the Assessment Appeals Commission finds that the appellant bears the burden of proof with respect to the primary issue of this appeal.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the appellant be held in default and that this appeal be dismissed. The initial decision and order of the administrative judge is affirmed.

Not later than fifteen (15) days after entry of this notice, the appellant may file a motion requesting that this default order be set aside for good cause shown, and stating the grounds relied upon. Such motion shall be mailed and delivered to the office of the Assessment Appeals Commission, State Board of Equalization, at the following address:

James K. Polk State Office Building
Suite 1700, 505 Deaderick Street
Nashville, TN 37243-0280

DATED: June 5, 2006
